

- As a sworn police officer (law enforcement officer/LEO), protected and safeguarded the Pentagon reservation, including its military and civilian personnel and the iconic building itself
- Successfully prevented unauthorized individuals from accessing the secured areas of the Pentagon reservation and facilities
- Conducted active foot police patrols of the Pentagon building and facilities, interior and/or exterior
- Conducted vehicular police patrols of the Pentagon reservations, including the roadways and parking lots
- Monitored the interior and exterior of the Pentagon for suspicious activities and persons
- Actively monitored the police radio for service calls and emergency services
- Successfully verified access credentials of Pentagon employees and visitors
- With the use of magnetometers and x-ray machines, screened tenants of the Pentagon, including visitors, searching for prohibited and illegal items
- Generated and completed XX police reports

SUPERVISORS (in addition to the above)

- As a supervisory police officer, conducted Roll Call for the assigned shift for staffing and assignment accountability and also, critical information, including law enforcement sensitive, is properly disseminated
- As a supervisory police officer, conducted post checks within my assigned area of operation for police officer welfare and assignment accountability purposes
- As a supervisory police officer, conducted performance reviews with my assigned personnel
- As a supervisory police officer, reviewed and certified timesheets of my assigned personnel

- As a sworn police officer (law enforcement officer/LEO), protected and safeguarded the Pentagon reservation, including its military and civilian personnel and the iconic building itself
- Successfully prevented unauthorized individuals from accessing the secured areas of the Pentagon reservation and facilities
- Conducted active foot police patrols of the Pentagon building and facilities, interior and/or exterior
- Conducted vehicular police patrols of the Pentagon reservations, including the roadways and parking lots
- Monitored the interior and exterior of the Pentagon for suspicious activities and persons
- Actively monitored the police radio for service calls and emergency services
- Successfully verified access credentials of Pentagon employees and visitors
- With the use of magnetometers and x-ray machines, screened tenants of the Pentagon, including visitors, searching for prohibited and illegal items
- Generated and completed XX police reports